INTRODUCTION:

The “Start-up India and Self Employment Opportunities Seminar” was held on 26-10-2023 at Room no F2. Guest Speaker for the seminar was Mr. M. K. Chandrahas, Founder Director, Karnataka Gnana Ganga Trust, Financial Consultant, Guest and Motivational Speaker. The seminar aimed to provide valuable insights and guidance on the various opportunities available for start-ups and self-employment in India. It brought together experts, entrepreneurs, and government officials to discuss and promote entrepreneurship in the country.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS:

The seminar commenced with an inaugural address by Mrs. Trupti Bopanna, Principal, St. Anne's Degree College, Virajpet.

GUEST SPEAKER:

The Guest speaker Mr. M. K. Chandrahas shared his success story and provided inspiration to the attendees. He emphasised the role of innovation and determination in achieving entrepreneurial success. This session delved into the various initiatives and policies introduced by the Indian Government to promote start-ups. Topic included the “start-up India” program, tax benefit, and regulatory reforms. He also provided insights into creating a compelling business plan to attract investors and various self - employment opportunities in India, including freelancing, gig economy jobs, and small business ventures. The seminar emphasised the significance of building a strong professional network. Attendees learned about the benefits of collaborating with other entrepreneurs and like-minded individuals to grow their business.

CONCLUSION:

The seminar concluded with a summary of the key takeaways and an encouragement for attendees to actively pursue their entrepreneurial dreams. Participants left with a better understanding of the support available, various funding options, and the skills needed to succeed in the world of start-ups and self-employment.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to our correspondent Rev. Fr. Issac Rathnakar, St. Anne's Institution, Principal Mrs. Trupti Bopanna, Mr. M. K.
